DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Steger et al. USPN 6911022.

As to claim 1, Steger discloses an absorbent article having a main part including liquid-permeable surface sheet 22, a liquid-impermeable anti leak sheet 24, a liquid-holding absorbent 26 between the surface sheet and anti-leak sheet. The main part is folded with portions of the folded part bonded together (Figures 8 and 9 and col. 8, lines 46-52; col. 15, lines 40-66).

As to claim 2, the article comprises wings 28.

As to claim 3, Steger discloses each wing portion 28 is folded onto the surface sheet 22, with an adhesive 40 on the outer surface, and a release liner 46 attached to the wing portions (Figure 3).

As to claims 4 and 5, Steger discloses adhesive 42 attached to anti-leak sheet 24 (col. 4, lines 7-8), with release liner 48 attached to the adhesive (col. 13, lines 48-53).

As to claims 6-9, see Figures 8 and 9.

As to claims 10-14, Steger discloses an adhesive is used for bonding.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 15-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
